

Europe

In terms of pure convenience, no continent compares to Europe. With so many countries, cultures, languages, and varieties of cuisine packed into such a comparatively tiny place, you can spend a week in Europe and experience something wildly different every day. Whether you're into the classics or something more off the map, it's not possible to see everything in one go — but hey, that just gives you a good reason to come back again and again.

INTRODUCING

Solo·ish Adventures

Travel for yourself. Not by yourself.

Exclusively for solo travellers, these trips were designed to do one thing better than anything that's come before: create community. With itineraries crafted for instant connection, you'll be on a fast-track to getting closer to your group-mates, and the world, right from day one.

Solo travellers, unite

Unlike our other adventures, Solo-ish trips are exclusively for solo travellers, aged 18 and up. No more worrying about being the odd one out — you'll be travelling with a community of people stepping out on their own to welcome whatever the world brings their way.

Fast start, full hearts

These trips' first three days are all about turning strangers into a close-knit crew. On most itineraries, you'll kick off the first day with a fun dinner party. On day two, embrace adventure with your group, CEO, and local community. Day three delivers a full slate of epic activities, including one sweet surprise.

Safety over everything

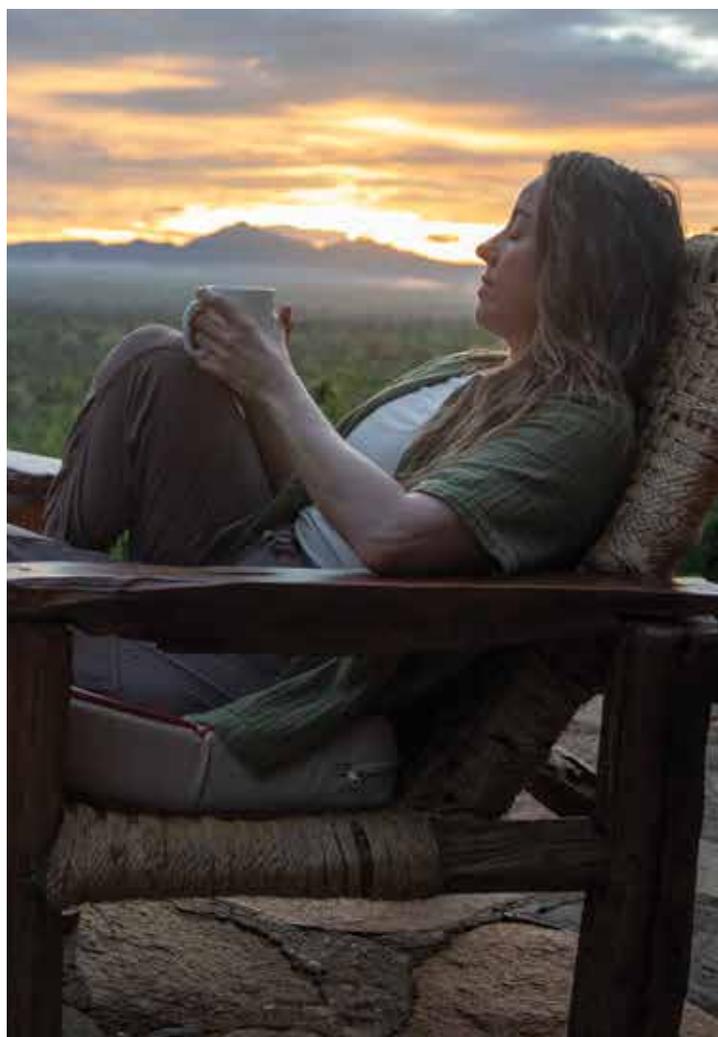

Who says solo travel can't feel safe? Enjoy a complimentary arrival transfer to your hotel and pay less for private accommodation with our My Own Room option.

Women lead the world

On all Solo-ish trips, a female Chief Experience Officer will lead the way. Why? In many developing countries, travel guides are predominantly male. With 68% of our solo travellers being female, we saw this as a chance to empower more women with meaningful employment.

Me-time comes standard

Sure this might be group travel, but we know solo adventurers still love their independence. That's why every Solo-ish trip features a dedicated Me Day, with the flexibility and free time to do your own thing, at your own pace.

Me Day: Join your CEO to hang out at the Split, go snorkelling at the Hot Chan Marine Reserve or explore on your own.

Chart a course for Europe

You've seen the rugged coastlines, whitewashed villages, and turquoise waters of Europe's islands a zillion times on postcards. But even the greatest images are no match for the real thing. Exploring Greece, Croatia, Italy, Montenegro, and the Canary Islands by sea gives you the chance to see where history (and myth) happened and, of course, soak up as much sun as you can.

Ancient shores, timeless adventures

GREEK ISLANDS

Santorini

Arguably the most famous of the Greek Islands, Santorini has the looks to match the hype. Marvel at the semi-submerged volcanic caldera and the island's stunning cliffs.

Mykonos

A popular spot for jet-setters since the 1950s, the nightlife on this Cycladic island is legendary. Feel free to hit the town; we'll keep the yacht in the harbour until you get back.

CANARY ISLANDS

Santa Cruz de la Palma

Full of museums, architecture, and centuries-old historical sites, the cobblestone streets of Santa Cruz de la Palma are full of activity. Discover the city on foot and finish off the day at one of the many quaint bars and restaurants, or head to the local beach to soak up the sun and scenery.

ITALY, CROATIA & MONTENEGRO

Dubrovnik

Wander among the city's ancient walls that surround a UNESCO World Heritage site. A trip here isn't complete without walking through the Old Town to marvel at its churches, monasteries, and plazas.

Split

Explore the second-largest city in Croatia, where modern life and history collide. Climb cathedral bell towers and stroll through palaces at one of its lively bars.

Bay of Kotor

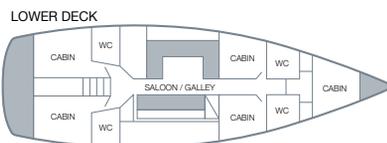

Visit this ancient Mediterranean port in the heart of the Adriatic Sea, where towering green mountains provide an epic backdrop to the shimmering blue waters of the bay.

Kvarner Bay Islands

Island hop your way around this Croatian archipelago and uncover its charming villages, fresh seafood, and many secluded beaches.
